JOURNAL OF THE

[May 18, 1999]

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 137

Offered by Senator Geo-Karis and all Senators:
Mourns the death of Henry Jeffers of Waukegan.

The foregoing resolution was referred to the Resolutions Consent Calendar.

Senators Geo-Karis - DeLeo offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

WHEREAS, This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Turkish invasion and occupation of Cyprus; and

WHEREAS, The Republic of Cyprus has been divided and occupied by foreign forces since 1974, in violation of United Nations resolutions; and

WHEREAS, The international community and the United States government have repeatedly called for the speedy withdrawal of all foreign forces from the territory of Cyprus; and

WHEREAS, There are internationally acceptable means to resolve the situation in Cyprus, including the demilitarization of Cyprus and the establishment of a multinational force to ensure the security of both communities in Cyprus; and

WHEREAS, A peaceful, just, and lasting solution to the Cyprus problem would greatly benefit the security, and the political, economic, and social well-being of all Cypriots, as well as contribute to improved relations between Greece and Turkey; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations has repeatedly stated the parameters for such a solution, most recently in United Nations Security Council Resolution 1218, which was adopted on December 22, 1998, with United States support; and

WHEREAS, United Nations Security Council Resolution 1218, adopted on December 22, 1998, calls for reduction of tensions in the island, through a staged process aimed at limiting and then substantially reducing the level of all troops and armaments in Cyprus, ultimately leading to the demilitarization of the Republic of Cyprus; and

WHEREAS, President Clinton wholeheartedly supported resolution 1218 and committed himself to taking all necessary steps to support a sustained effort to implement the resolution; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we endorse President Clinton's commitment to undertake significant efforts in order to promote substantial progress towards a solution to the Cyprus problem in 1999; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to each member of the Illinois congressional delegation.

Senator E. Jones and all Democrat Senators offered the following Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 139

WHEREAS, Article I, Section 2 of the United States Constitution requires an actual enumeration of the population to be made every 10 years, in such a manner as may be directed by law.

WHEREAS, A complete and accurate count of all persons in the United States of America is vital to the interests of the people of the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Past censuses have been significantly inaccurate, despite good faith efforts of the Census Bureau and its personnel;

and

WHEREAS, Technological advances have made statistical sampling a more reliable and accurate source of information; and

WHEREAS, The National Academy of Sciences, at the request of the United States government, has devised a sampling method for conducting the 2000 census that would be more accurate; and

WHEREAS, The last federal decennial census, conducted in 1990, was the first census that was less accurate than the previous census; and

WHEREAS, Recent federal decennial censuses, including the 1990 census, significantly undercounted millions of Americans; and

WHEREAS, The U.S. Census Bureau has reported that the 1990 census undercounted 8.4 million persons and overcounted 4.4 million persons; and

WHEREAS, More than one-half of the 8.4 million persons undercounted in the 1990 census were children; and

WHEREAS, The undercount has had a disproportionate impact on virtually all minorities within the State of Illinois, including the African-American, Hispanic, Asian-American, Native American, and poor populations; and

WHEREAS, The 1990 census was recognized as not attaining the American goals of fairness and equality due to the racial and economic differentials; and

WHEREAS, Illinois has lost seats in the United States House of Representatives in five of the last six reapportionments conducted since 1940 and, of all Congressional seats, preliminary census figures have Illinois apportioned the last Congressional district, based on its claimed population; and

WHEREAS, Any loss of a Congressional district in Illinois will bring with it a proportional loss of federal revenues; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered a decision, in No. 98-404, Department of Commerce, et al. v. United States House of Representatives, et al., together with No. 98-564, William Jefferson Clinton, President of the United States, et al. v. Glavin, et al., that while Section 195 of the Census Act prohibits the use of sampling procedures to adjust the census for the purposes of allocating Congressional Representatives among the States, it does allow the Secretary of the Department of Commerce to propose the use of statistically adjusted numbers "if feasible" for other purposes; and

WHEREAS, In addition to Congressional reapportionment purposes, census figures are used to determine various forms of federal aid, including aid for schools, transportation, and health care, and to determine election boundaries at the State and local levels; and

WHEREAS, The historical undercounting of the State's poor and minority populations has cost the State and local governmental entities an untold, but enormous, amount of federal revenues; and

WHEREAS, The traditional methods of conducting the census will be less accurate than the scientific methods developed by the National Academy of Sciences, regardless of the amount of funds allocated by Congress to conduct a census using the traditional methods; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, That we urge the federal government to take immediate and appropriate steps to ensure that, in addition to an actual enumeration, the modern scientific methods are used in conducting the census so that the most accurate population figures will be provided pursuant to statute on or before April 1, 2001, as the official federal decennial census; and be it further

RESOLVED, that we further urge the federal government to use the more accurate figures obtained through the modern, scientific methods

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 140

WHEREAS, Children are a precious gift and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, The spiritual, physical, and mental well being of children is our sacred duty; and

WHEREAS, No segment of our society is more critical to the survival of our civilization and posterity than our children; and

SENATE

WHEREAS, Information that seeks to endanger our children has been made public and has been given unwarranted or unintended credibility through release under professional titles or through a professional and well respected organization; and

WHEREAS, It is the obligation of all public policy makers not only to support but also to defend the health and rights of parents, families, and children; and

WHEREAS, Citizens of this great nation entrust in their elected officials the duty to inform and counteract that which we consider damaging to children, families, and society; and

WHEREAS, Recently the American Psychological Association (APA) published a research paper entitled, "A Meta-Analytic Examination of Assumed Properties of Child Sexual Abuse Using College Samples," on the long-term impact of child sexual abuse; this paper was authored by Bruce Rind (Temple University), Philip Tromovitch (University of Pennsylvania), and Robert Bauserman (University of Michigan); and

WHEREAS, The conclusions of this report suggest that many survivors of child sexual abuse have little or no long-term effects of the abuse and that for some "willing" children adolescent sex "may fall within the 'normal' range of some sexual behavior"; and

WHEREAS, This report attempts to distinguish child sexual abuse from adolescent/adult sex by stating that a willing encounter between a child and an adult with positive reactions would be labeled simply adult-child sex, a value neutral term; and

WHEREAS, William Shakespeare, one of the great writers of English literature and Western civilization, wrote that "unstained thoughts do seldom dream on evil"; and

WHEREAS, A well accepted tenet of Western civilization is embodied in the words written in Matthew 18, which say, "it would be better for anyone who leads astray one of these little ones who believe in me, to be drowned by a millstone around his neck, in the depths of the sea"; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we condemn and denounce all findings in this report which suggest that sexual relationships between adults and "willing" children are less harmful than believed and these relationships are beneficial to the child involved; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Illinois Senate urges the United States congress and the President of the United States to reject any suggestion that sexual relations between children and adults are anything but abusive, destructive, exploitative, reprehensible, and punishable by law; and be it further

RESOLVED, The the Illinois Senate finds that no State resources should be used by our colleges and universities for this type of research which is looked upon by society as balderdash; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Illinois Senate rejects the moral relativism contained in this report and embraces that societal norms are necessary for a healthy society; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to President Clinton, the Illinois congressional delegation, the governing boards of Temple University, the University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Michigan, and the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is requested to share a copy of this resolution with each of the governing boards of all colleges and universities in Illinois.
